Dear Ms Caldwell,

I am writing to congratulate Healthy n Happy on its success in being chosen for one of the 10 GSK Impact Awards, with Health n Happy's track-record in boosting self-confidence and self-esteem in Rutherglen and Cambuslang being recognised.

I would like to draw your attention to the following Motion which I recently submitted to the Scottish Parliament to mark this achievement;

Motion S5M-04507: Clare Haughey, Rutherglen, Scottish National Party, Date Lodged: 08/03/2017

Healthy n Happy Wins GSK Impact Award

That the Parliament congratulates the Rutherglen-based charity, Healthy n Happy, on being chosen from among 400 to win one of the 10 GSK Impact Awards, which recognise excellence among groups that aim to improve health and wellbeing in communities; notes that these prestigious awards are run by the pharmaceutical and health care company, Glaxo Smith Klein (GSK), in partnership with independent charity, the King's Fund; understands that Healthy n Happy was recognised for its ability in increasing confidence and self-esteem, boosting skills and relationships and raising awareness of health issues in areas of high deprivation; notes that the award includes a £30,000 funding boost for the charity; commends the hard work and efforts of its volunteers and staff, and wishes Healthy n Happy well in its activities across the Rutherglen and Cambuslang areas.

Supported by: Colin Beattie, Bob Doris, Joan McAlpine, Ruth Maguire, David Torrance, James Dornan, Bill Kidd, Richard Lyle, Graham Simpson, Ash Denham, Pauline McNeill, Emma Harper, Sandra White, Fulton MacGregor, Gillian Martin, Jenny Gilruth, Stuart McMillan, Ivan McKee, Angus MacDonald, Tom Arthur

With best wishes,

Kind regards
